Application for Rural Job Tax Credit Instructions

The Rural Job Tax Credit Act, Section 7-2E-1.1 NMSA 1978 provides a credit for eligible rural employers for wages paid to an eligible employee for each qualifying job the employer creates after July 1, 2000. The amount of the rural job tax credit is 6.25% of the first $16,000 in wages paid for the qualifying job in a qualifying period. An eligible employee must occupy the qualified job for at least 48 weeks.

The Rural Job Tax Credit may be claimed for each qualifying job for a maximum of four qualifying periods if the job is performed or based at a location in a tier one area, and two qualifying periods if the job is performed or based at a location in a tier two area.

Tier areas and rural area defined - A rural area excludes Los Alamos County, Albuquerque, Los Ranchos, Corrales, Rio Rancho, Tijeras, Santa Fe, or Las Cruces and any area within a ten-mile zone around any of these municipalities. A tier two area is within the cities of Roswell, Clovis, Carlsbad, Hobbs, Gallup, Alamogordo and Farmington. A tier one area is anywhere within New Mexico not listed above.

Eligible employer defined - An employer who has been approved for Job Training Incentive Program (JTIP) assistance by the Economic Development Department, pursuant to Section 21-19-7 NMSA 1978. To learn more about JTIP assistance contact: New Mexico Economic Development Department, Joseph M. Montoya Building, 1100 So. St. Francis Drive, Santa Fe, NM 87505-4147 or call: (505) 827-0300 or (800) 374-3061. The Internet address is: www.edd.state.nm.us.

Qualifying job defined - A job established by an eligible employer that is occupied by an eligible employee for at least forty-eight weeks of a qualifying period.

Qualifying period defined - A period of 12 months beginning on the day an eligible employee began working in the qualifying job, or a period of 12 months beginning on the anniversary of the day an eligible employee began working in a qualified job.

CERTIFICATIONS

The employer shall certify the amount of wages paid to each eligible employee during each qualified period, the number of weeks during the period the position was occupied, and whether the qualifying job was in a tier one or a tier two area. Form RPD-41247, Certificate of Eligibility for the Rural Job Tax Credit, must be completed for each eligible job within an eligible period.
